 Despatches to the Evening Times.
 The Political Campaign in Connecticut

The Tribune's special Washington despatch says—

The King of Belgium has sent an embassy to Washington to announce his accession to the throne of the Kingdom.

Over one hundred officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps were ordered yesterday to report for duty in the Freedmen's Bureau.

The Cabinet held a special session yesterday.

It is stated that the removal of Comptroller Clark was under deliberation.

The Ways and Means committee will probably allow the income tax to remain as it is. It will increase the import duty on foreign wines at least one hundred per cent. The Times' City of Mexico correspondent says—

It is very generally asserted that Mr. Langlais, Minister and Secretary of the Treasury of Mexico, whose sudden demise has been published, was poisoned.

NEW YORK, March 15.

A meeting of those who were Union pris-onors in Charleston, S. C., in 1861-2, was held at the Metropolitan last evening for the purpose of making arrangements to tender to Bishop Lynch, who is here soliciting funds with which to rebuild the Orphan Asylum of Charleston, the proceeds of a lecture to be delivered at the Academy of Music. The Bishop was very kind to the audience.

NEW YORK, March 15.

The steamer San Jacinto, of the Havana line, was burned at her dock this morning.

Five hundred bales of cotton and 2000 bbls. of flour were destroyed.

NEW HAVEN, March 16.

Hon. Eli Thayer, formerly member of Congress from the Worcester Mass. district, addressed the Democrats here last evening in Music Hall. He maintained that the members elect from the South, ought to be admitted to Congress, and said the object of the Government is to let the people alone, and make them let each other alone.

He said the Republicans are entitled to no credit for subduing the rebellion, for it might and ought to be put down in a year.

If an energetic man had been President the war would have been finished in 1862. - He denounced the Freedmen's Bureau bill; advocated free trade; said that paper money ought to be issued by the Treasury at Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO March 14

It has been stated that the steamer Nifannur, which arrived on the 6th inst. from China, brought advices of an advance of from ten to fifteen cents per pound on tea. Files of papers do not mention any particular change in the tea market, and the major portion of the trade discredits the reported

BUFFALO, N. Y., Mar. 15.
Two hundred U. S. soldiers arrived here yesterday, and are now at Fort Porter. More are said to be expected. They are supposed to be here to see that the neutrality laws are observed.

Don't Do It. When one who declared that Lincoln's election provoked and justified Secession and Disunion, asks you to sign a political call, don't do it!

desist from lifting the flag, seizing the fortresses, and robbing the arsenals of your country by kicking the New England States out of the Union and agreeing that the slaveholders might take their human chattels into every Territory of the Union, asks you to unite with him in a political movement, don't do it.

When one who declared the War for the Union unjust, and proclaimed on the streets that the rebels were fighting for the defence of their rights and their homes, asks you to unite with him in an avowal of political sentiment and purpose, don't do it!

When one who steadfastly insisted that the throughout our great struggle that the rebels were always victorious, that our armies made no progress, that our national debt would inevitably be repudiated, that the Union could only be restored by first giving it up as lost, and then asking the victors to let us creep in at the back door of their triumphant Confederacy, now urges you to sympathize

When one who denounced and raved at the emancipation policy of President Lin-declared that it had "united the South and divided the North"—that we could never succeed till it was repudiated, that if Lincoln were re-elected, the Union would never be restored, now, wants you to play second to his first, don't you begin to do it!

not deceived. Evil communications corrupt good manners." When all manner of Copperheads and Secession sympathizers ask you to train in their company, tell them you'll see 'em blest first!—[N. Y. Tribune.

Now that freedom has been accorded to the African race in our midst, duty and policy alike admonishes us to give him all the oncomitants of what he regards so great a

In this notice is made known to the public and respectable business community that after twenty years experience, that the Brooklyn Daily Eagle has been established as the most reliable source of news and information. Its articles may be found in all the leading newspapers and magazines, and its circulation is unparalleled. It is the only paper that is read and known in all the leading cities and towns of the United States. Being personally acquainted with Mr. J. H. Thompson, the Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, I have been most favorably impressed with his integrity and granted with these
